Benefice Newsletter

Ramblings from The Rectory

As I write this I am not in the Christmas spirit at all, in fact I feel like Scrooge and want to cancel the whole thing. But as I let the grump go, I can start to look forward to all that Christmas means.

I start to think of all the carols and special services. Jesus may not be the household favourite that he once was, but at Christmas we still remember him, at least in passing, perhaps on the way to a second helping of Christmas pudding. Sometimes Jesus even appears on a Christmas card or two, usually those left in the bottom of the box, reserved for friends that are 'religious' (i.e. a bit odd). Strangely, I often get the Jesus cards, I can't think why.

The Christmas hymns and carols are old and comfortably worn, and the words are familiar. But, for me, it is the Gospel reading that really sends shivers down my spine, "In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. The same was in the beginning with God. All things were made by him; and without him was not any thing made that was made. In him was life; and the life was the light of all people."

I hear those words from the very beginning of John's Gospel and I remember what it is all about. I remember that in Jesus God became part of his creation, so that I, all people, and all creation could become one with God once again. I remember the power of God to change my life, and all lives for the better.

Whether you agree with me or not, I wish you a Happy Christmas!

God bless you now and throughout the New Year,

Nigel.

Tuesday Informal Singing

I started the Informal Singing Group on Tuesday mornings with Stephanie in November 2009, thinking just a few months.... we had much fun learning new hymns and songs. With help from others we enjoyed the Big Sing and other smaller events. Until covid put a stop to everything

Then Richard and I restarted the group. Richard and his wife travelled from Sudbury with his guitar every two weeks to lead.

Sadly for different reasons, we have decided it is time for a change.

19 December will be our last sing together.

I say a huge thank you to Richard and all the singers for many happy years together.

No Singing in January 2024, as weather is usually bad. BUT watch out for an announcement in Jan/Feb Benefice News.

Best wishes, Sheila
